

California State University, Fresno has the following recognized auxiliary organizations which were created to support the mission of the University. These auxiliary organizations are 501 (c) (3) non-profit public benefit corporations that were established pursuant to California Education Code Section 89900, et seq.

- ❖ The Agricultural Foundation of California State University, Fresno
- ❖ California State University, Fresno Association, Inc.
- ❖ Associated Students of California State University, Fresno
- ❖ California State University, Fresno Foundation
- ❖ Fresno State Programs for Children, Inc.

All of the auxiliary organizations play a major role in supporting the mission and strategic planning objectives for the University. Our goal is to work closely with the University to ensure that the auxiliary organizations are providing the necessary services to serve our diverse campus community now and in the future.

The University is currently in a period of rapid growth and development as we approach our institution's centennial celebration in 2011. We look forward to playing a significant role in helping Fresno State achieve its goals through continuing to expand the programs, facilities, and services that are integral to the success of our students, faculty, and staff.

The Auxiliary Corporations are committed to transparency and openness, and for this reason a Public Documents section has been established on our website. It contains current and past budgets, tax returns, policies, handbooks, and other corporate documents. We invite you to review this information, as well as our overview of funding document, to better understand how we support our University and its students.

More information regarding California State University, Fresno Auxiliary Corporations may be viewed at the following link:
<http://www.auxiliary.com/index.shtml>