

Division of Equity and Engagement

Mission

The Division of Equity and Engagement supports the mission of Fresno State by weaving equity and inclusivity into the fabric of every aspect of the institution.

To represent and reflect a global culture that is affirming, inclusive, and equitable to foster a sense of belonging, with the goal of advancing human potential and growth.

To move our mission forward, we will:

- Focus on educating, empowering, and encouraging students, and employees to overcome, remove, and combat processes that promote systemic barriers; so that our community can thrive.
- Champion equity, and inclusion in academic and scholarly activities by cultivating opportunities for collaboration and community across the University.
- Provide educational resources, programming, outreach, and learning opportunities that promote access and equity.
- Foster living, learning, and working conditions that empower physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual well-being.
- Align our mission and actions through meaningful accountability measures and data to ensure progress on goals related to equity, diversity, and inclusion.

Vision

The Division of Equity and Engagement will institutionalize the Inclusive Excellence theoretical lens as the foundation to motivate and galvanize the campus community toward a shared vision of an institution that is welcoming, inclusive, respectful, and free from discrimination, intolerance, and harassment, where all can thrive.

For more information regarding Division of Equity and Engagement please go to the following link:

<https://equity.fresnostate.edu/index.html>