

Office of the President

Presidential Duties

The campus president has numerous responsibilities as the chief executive officer of the university, as the primary liaison between the university and the greater community, and as the public "face" of the institution. The president maintains a close working relationship with the CSU's systemwide office, reporting to the chancellor and representing the campus on the systemwide Executive Council. The president provides leadership in managing campus operations and plans for future needs including fundraising and working with the campus community in setting campus priorities. The president also oversees the hiring and support of staff and teaching faculty.

Mission

Fresno State empowers students for success through a transformative education rooted in active service with diverse communities.

Vision

Fresno State, with its local focus and global impact, will be recognized as a model for advancing social, economic, and environmental progress regionally, nationally and globally by providing an accessible, transformative education; conducting research on critical issues; and producing a generation of diverse leaders.

Core Values

- Exploration - Cultivating the exploration of ideas and of creative expression through nurturing curiosity and open-mindedness.
- Excellence – Growing excellence through research, teaching, and professional development to reach our fullest potential.
- Inclusion – Promoting diversity, equity, inclusion, access, and belongingness based on a fundamental respect for others.
- Community – Committed to strengthening our community through education, research and service.

More information regarding the Office of the President may be viewed at the following link: <http://www.fresnostate.edu/president/index.html>.