

RESEARCH COMPLIANCE AT FRESNO STATE

Enhancing a University-Wide Culture of Compliance

Resources for Faculty

Institutional Ethics Committees

- Faculty overseeing environmental health and safety related research.
- Faculty overseeing research subject protection.

Research Compliance Officer

- Monitors University-wide research compliance.
- Serves as a liaison for institutional compliance committees.
- Provides research compliance education and training to faculty, staff, and students.
- Connects people to available compliance resources for research and externally funded sponsored activities.
- Assists in the development of institutional regulatory research compliance policies and procedures.

Division of Research and Graduate Studies (DRGS)

Mission: Foster Excellence and Promote Success in Research and Graduate Education

Research Compliance Training for Faculty, Students, Staff and Administrators

Fresno State subscribes to Collaborative Institutional Training Initiative (CITI) Program to provide comprehensive research ethics and compliance training to all faculty, students, staff and administrators.

Available Online Training:

1. Responsible Conduct of Research (RCR)
2. Human Subjects Research (HSR)
3. Animal Care and Use (ACU)
4. Conflicts of Interest (COI)
5. Information Privacy and Security (IPS)
6. Good Clinical Practice (GCP)

To access CITI Program, please visit:

<https://about.citiprogram.org/en/homepage/>