

Central Valley Emerging Leaders Summit

CVELS is a four day residential leadership development experience for Valley high school students.

Participant Demographics

self-reported

■ African American ■ Asian ■ Caucasian ■ Hispanic ■ Multiethnic

95

Valley high school student participants

22

Fresno State student facilitator staff

CVELS 2017 Day Three

96% of students felt CVELS advanced their knowledge of Leadership

96% of students learned skills and concepts that can be used to serve their community.

98% of students would recommend attending CVELS to a friend.

Community Food Bank & Habitat for Humanity ReStore

CVELS 2017 Day Two

295

Hours of community service completed

CVELS 2017 Day One

Learning Outcomes

As a result of participating in the Central Valley Emerging Leaders Summit students will...

- Develop leadership skills and competencies through experiential learning.
- Cultivate the value of civic responsibility and service.
- Explore college and career pathways.

CVELS 2017 Banquet

"I have grown a lot as a person. I have been able to gain self-confidence and I was able to see that I am capable of doing whatever I set my mind to."