Fresno State Digital Repository (FSDR): Key Concepts and Best Practices

https://repository.library.fresnostate.edu
Henry Madden Library, FSDR Committee

Committee Members
Lucy Liu, Institutional Repository Librarian
David Drexler, Digital Initiatives Librarian
Renaldo Gjoshe, Head of Digital Services Division
Maria Peña, Systems Analyst / Digitization Manager
Carol Doyle, Research Services Librarian
Jane Magee, Research Services Librarian
Britt Foster, Research Services Librarian
Peter McDonald, Research Services Librarian

The Fresno State Digital Repository (FSDR) is the open access repository preserving and providing access to the scholarly and administrative works at California State University, Fresno. FSDR is part of the CSU-wide Scholarworks project, and is managed by the Henry Madden Library at Fresno State.

The FSDR has developed rapidly since 2016. This poster shows the key concepts and best practices that have made the FSDR so successful.
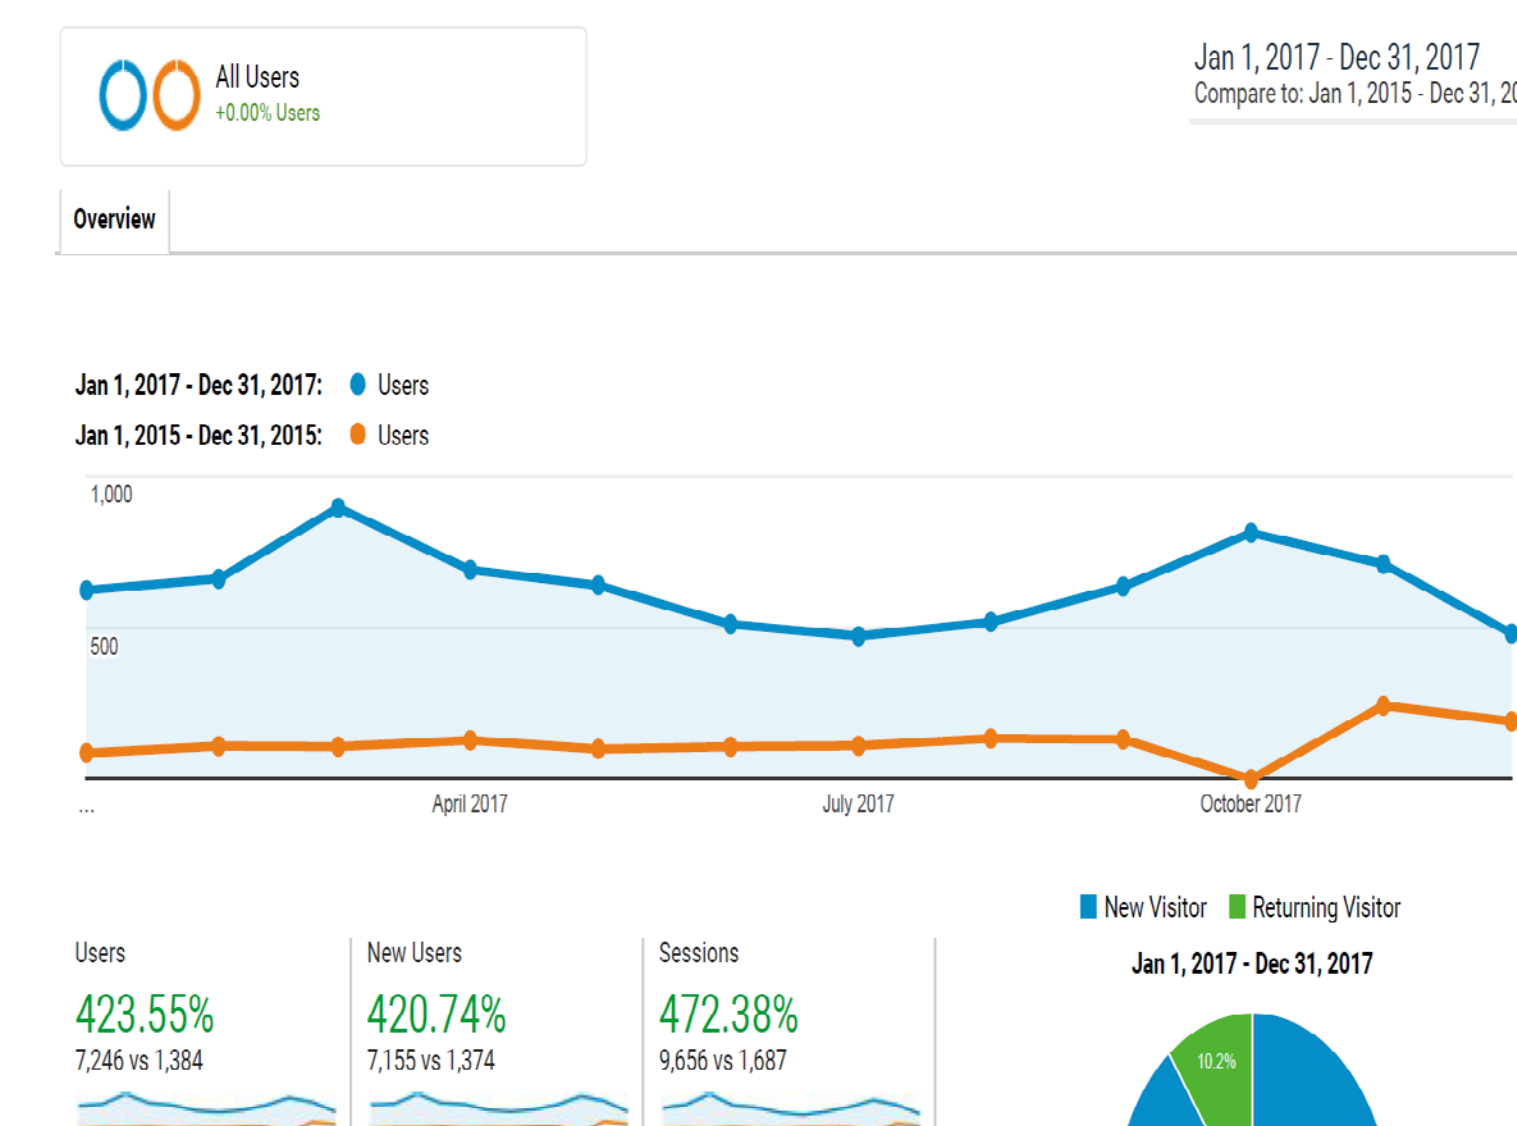

What do we have?

|
Scholarly, creative & instructional works	5,200+
Theses & Dissertations	2,200+
University Archives & Publications	4,000+
Total	11,500+

How was FSDR used since 2016?

Users	14,981
New Users	14,908
Sessions	20,244
Pageviews	128,794

How did our use increase?

| Users	New Users	Sessions
423.55%	420.74%	472.38%
7,246 vs 1,384	7,155 vs 1,374	9,656 vs 1,687

Where are our users?

Key Concepts and Best Practices

- Teamwork and collaboration
- Strategic promotion
- Understand and respect customers' needs
- Identify and invite potential contributions
- Automate data processing

Challenges

- Getting unpublished works
- Bias against open access journals
- Getting pre-prints and post-prints

On the Agenda

- Institutional commitment outlined in policy
- Copyright education and collaboration
- Systematic and dynamic authority control
- Platform migration
- Faculty profiles
- Expanded types of content
- Expanded services

How do we do it?

Teamwork and Collaboration

Who?
Library (Librarians, Staff, etc.)   Faculty
Chancellor's Office   Students
Department Contacts

What?
Infrastructure   Data & Metadata
Policy   Workflow
Copyright   Promotion

How?
Design   Discussion
Development   Decision-making

Strategic Promotion

Outreach
- President
- Provost
- Deans
- Department heads
- Faculty and staff
- Department/ program contacts
- Students
- Alumni

Events
- Workshops
- Presentations
- Posters
- Exhibits
- Social Events

Communication
- In-person
- Phone
- Email
- Website
- Social media

Understand and Respect Needs

Increased impact
- Personal impact
- Institutional impact
- Statistics & reports

All-in-one storage
- Safe
- Long-term
- Evolving

Easy for contributors
- Multi-channel submission
- Least effort from contributors
- Communicate status

Copyright concerns
- SHERPA/RoMEO
- Publishers
- Copyright Clearance Center

Identify and Invite Potential Contributions

Database search   Recommendations
Online search   Active supporters
Potential contributors

Faculty Publications

Retrieve faculty publications   Copyright search   Create metadata

Automate Data Processing

Electronic Theses & Dissertations

Receive ProQuest records   Create metadata