

TALK: Strategic Promotion Solutions

OUR CLIENTS

TALK is a student-run public relations firm offering students real-world, hands-on experience.

TALK– Fresno State's Student-run PR Firm– is a course called Public Relations Agency Practicum. It is taught by Prof. Betsy Hays

In addition to client work, we strive to support local businesses and organizations. This year we have conducted social media workshops with local children's book authors and several community benefit organizations, including the Animal Compassion Team and the Southeast Fresno Community Economic Development Association.
