

The Transferable Skills of Supplemental Instruction Leaders

Acquisition

NACE career readiness competencies are a set of 8 skills that are highly promoted among SI Leaders.

- Critical Thinking/Problem Solving
- Oral/Written Communications
- Teamwork/Collaboration
- Digital Technology
- Leadership
- Professionalism/Work Ethic
- Career Management
- Global/Intercultural Fluency

Application

Professional Development is a key component that is heavily implemented within SI. There are 44 hours per semester allocated for SI Leaders to strengthen their skills. Those hours are accumulated through:

- Learning Center Orientation
- SI Monthly Trainings
- Bi-weekly Group Meetings

Assessment

Various performance evaluations are conducted by professional staff throughout the semester to measure the growth of SI Leaders.

- SI Session Observations
- Individual Meetings
- Mid-Semester SI Leader Self-Evaluations
- Final Semester Evaluations
- Learning Center Career Readiness Assessment

Newly introduced Spring 2018.

