

Peaceful Problem Solving

Mediator Mentors Program is a university - public school partnership in which Fresno State students, along with school teachers and counselors, help and mentor students in local schools to peacefully settle their problems.

In the past twenty years our program has served more than 9,000 teachers and children. Our school Peer Mediation Program teams in 106 schools and 14 districts in the Central Valley.

Peaceful Problem Solving by Students for Students

Our v i s i o n is focused on supporting peace education at all levels for the purpose of affecting a productive and dynamic conflict engagement at our schools and in our communities.
