

President's SHOWCASE of Excellence 2019

FRESNO STATE
Lyles Center for Innovation and Entrepreneurship

 Fresno Unified
School District

FRESNO STATE STEM 5

Fresno State STEM 5 is a student-centered, teacher-facilitated science curriculum that is fully aligned with Next Generation Science Standards and developed in collaboration with Fresno Unified School District, Kremen School of Education and the Lyles Center for Innovation and Entrepreneurship.

Fresno State's Lyles Center is proud to partner with Fresno Unified School District's College and Career Readiness (CCR) on programs addressing the District's mission of Preparing Career Ready Graduates.

Provides and ships all materials to 251 classes.

WAREHOUSE

Dr. Fred Nelson teaches program implementation.

TRAININGS

Serves approximately 6,087 5th Grade students in FUSD.

CLASSROOMS

partnerships with community organizations like ARC.

COMMUNITY

Science competition at Savemart Center.

INNOVATION DAY

A science-enrichment summer program.

STEAM TUNNELS

MATTER

ECOSYSTEMS

EARTH'S SYSTEMS

ENGINEERING

SPACE SYSTEMS