

Nestor Bulosan

Who he is:

Nestor Bulosan was raised in Orosi, CA. He is graduating from Fresno with a Construction Management degree in December 2022. He has always had an interest on how things were built.

Personal interests:

He loves to cook (whether at a restaurant or at home), playing basketball, and staying active by powerlifting at the gym.

Summary of Internship:

He is currently serving as the Construction Management Intern for the Fresno State CUPR project. His passion for seeing how things are assembled is what excites him most about this internship.