

Eslam Dandini

Who he is:

Eslam is an MBA Student at Fresno State. Eslam loves learning about different cultures and backgrounds, as being social and interacting with others is one of his biggest personality attributes.

Personal Interests:

Eslam enjoys singing and making music in his free time. He is a big action movie fan and likes playing and watching sports, including soccer.

Summary of Internship:

Eslam is the project documentarian and the digital photography and videography content creator for the BIG CURP P3 Project at Fresno State. His passion to learn continually while contributing to his campus is what excites him most about this internship. Also, he enjoys showcasing student lifestyle on campus.