

Induwara Rekogma

Who he is:

Induwara Rekogma is originally from Colombo, Sri Lanka. He is currently a junior in Construction Management who is serving as a construction management intern for Fresno State CUPR project.

Personal interests:

Induwara enjoys many hobbies including listening to, and making music, along with playing guitar, boxing, soccer, and cars.

Summary of Internship:

As an intern, Induwara is excited to learn new aspects of construction and improving his knowledge, while also being a valuable asset to the organization.