

BULLDOG ACCESSIBILITY RESOURCE CENTER

For people without disabilities, accessible technology makes things easier. For people with disabilities, it makes things possible.

MISSION

The Bulldog Accessibility Resource Center (BARC) believes in providing accessible technology to its diverse students, faculty, staff, and community populations

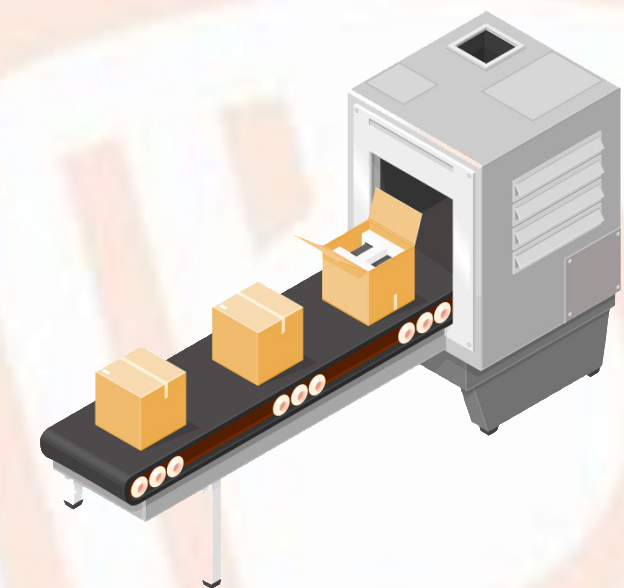

BARC offers support for accessibility in the classroom, in the workplace, and for the Fresno State community, to harness and embrace a lasting culture of inclusivity and universal design

FOCUS GROUP WORD MAP

BARC SERVICES

Remediation

- Faculty developed instruction materials
- University web –linked content
- End-user submitted files
- Third-party instructional materials
- Multimedia files

Accessible Procurement

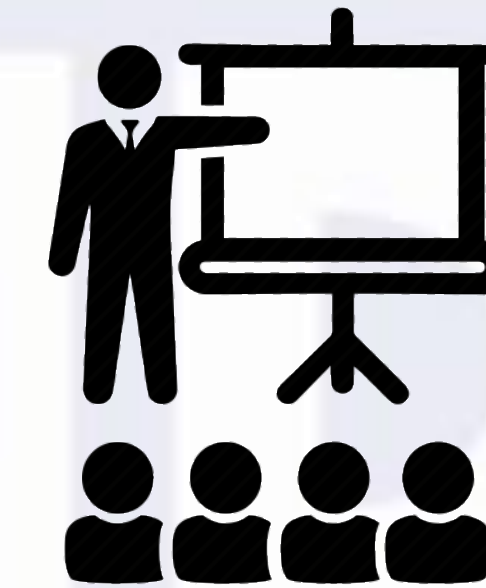

- Document review and impact assessment
- Accessibility reviews
- Bid and contract support
- Vendor accessibility roadmaps
- Equally Effective Alternate Access Plans (EEAAPs)

ATI / Campus Accessibility

- Coordinate and support ATI yearly report preparation
- Development of campus ATI plans
- Support campus ATI executive committee
- Participation in ATI community of practices
- Coordinate efforts with campus governance bodies
- Maintain campus accessibility portal

Training

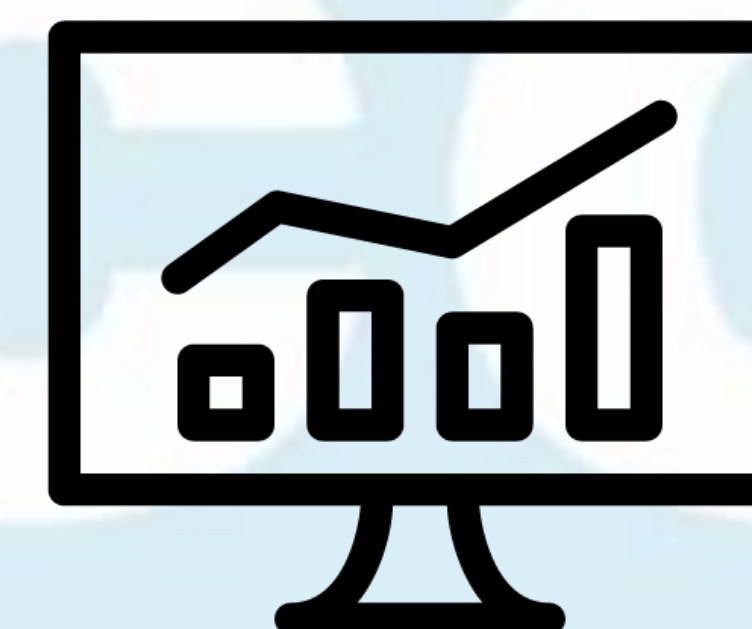

- Accessible instructional materials for faculty and students
- Web accessibility for designers
- Web accessibility for content editors
- Accessible procurement processes
- Accessible electronic communications

Testing

- Automated testing for web content and eDocs
- Hands-on testing – Web pages, Apps, Mobile Apps
- Hands-on testing – Instructional materials
- End-user testing by users of assistive technology
- Development of library of accessible design patterns

Evaluation / Monitoring

- Monitor status of progress for ATI success indicators
- Track progress of items in campus remediation plans
- Provide yearly "State of Accessibility" report
- Establish metrics to evaluate effectiveness of ATI work

VISION

BARC will establish Fresno State as a national leader in accessibility by maximizing the potential of all individuals and making our community more vibrant, diverse, and inclusive

DID YOU KNOW?

- Nationally, 11% of undergraduates have a disability
- At Fresno State, 3% of students are registered with Services for Students with Disabilities
- Universal Design for Learning (UDL) is designed to serve all learners, abilities, ages, cultures, genders, and linguistic backgrounds

THE BARC TEAM

