

CRPC 2016

Highlights

May 12 | Inaugural San Joaquin Valley Parks Summit

August 18 | 5th Annual Affordable Housing Summit

September 22 | City of Fresno's first PARK(ing) Day

Partners

California Coalition for Rural Housing
San Joaquin Valley Housing Collaborative

Department of Recreation Administration, Fresno State

City of Fresno Development and Resources Management Department and Public Works

Downtown Fresno Partnership

Gazebo Gardens Nursery

Joint venture between
College of Social Sciences,
Department of Geography and
City and Regional Planning and
Office of Community and Economic Development

FRESNO
STATE

Community and
Regional Planning
Center

■ Inaugural San Joaquin Valley Parks Summit at Bitwise South Stadium Industries
More than 170 came from throughout the San Joaquin Valley to attend
First in a three-part series with a Recreation Summit scheduled for May 2017 and Facilities Summit spring 2018

■ 5th Annual Affordable Housing Summit "The Housing Connection: Housing as an Anti-Poverty Strategy"
More than 200 participants from 40 different organizations across the San Joaquin Valley and California gathered to find out how housing relates to, for example, transportation and health
Sept 7, 2017, is set for the next Summit at the Fresno Convention & Entertainment Center in Fresno

■ CRPC joined City of Fresno to observe its first PARK(ing) Day, transforming metered spaces in front of City Hall into a mini-park - or "parklet" - complete with green turf, brightly colored bistro tables and moveable planters

