

Peace Garden - Celebrating 30 Years

The Peace Garden includes memorials of Cesar E. Chavez, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Mahatma Gandhi, and Jane Addams. Nelson Mandela will be the newest addition.

Two Canary Island pine trees were planted to honor Todd Beamer & Navy Lt. Cmdr. Vincent Tolbert, both killed on September 11, 2001.

Ambassador Sanjay Panda of India visited the Peace Garden to plant two trees donated by the Government of India in honor of Gandhi's Birth Anniversary on June 3, 2019.

Dr. Castro and Dr. Kapoor celebrated Cesar E. Chavez's birthday in a garlanding ceremony on March 25, 2020.

The Peace Garden was established in 1990 with a memorial to Mahatma Gandhi.

Gandhi's grandson, Prof. Rajmohan Gandhi, visited the Peace Garden during a luncheon in his honor.

Mahatma Gandhi's granddaughter, Ela Gandhi, visited to celebrate and speak at Gandhi's 150th birth anniversary.

