CAIFE 2.0 — Centralized Volunteer Opportunity Database

Executive Sponsors: Provost Lynnette Zelezny, Lawrence Salinas: Executive Director of Government Relations

Creating a "Spirit of Service"

- Inviting new opportunities from on-campus partners

- Increased community

connection

Program Planning

- Objectives/Goals
- Needs assessment
  - Budget
- Recruitment and recognition strategies - Database selection

- Policies and procedures
- Training and development
- Define categories and participating groups
- Establish work flow

VISION/IMPACT

The impact of the successful implementation of centralized volunteer management would be creating a vibrant relationship that gives the community a sense that Fresno State is their university.*

Cataloguing Current On-Campus Volunteer Opportunities

*For the scope of this project, we are looking at community members and alumni coming on campus, independent from service learning, internships, and mentor programs.

- Story sharing
- Volunteer recognition
- Evaluation and feedback

Implementation

- Interviewing and screening volunteers
- Staff support of volunteers
- Tracking and data entry
  - Reporting

Marketing Current Opportunities to Volunteers and Recruiting Volunteers

